

August 13, 2018 – December 7, 2018

Bethesda, MD

Welcome and Overview

Office of Behavioral and Social Sciences Research

National Institutes of Health

Christine Hunter, Ph.D., ABPP

Deputy Director

Goals of TIDIRH

Train New
Investigators

Develop D&I
Research
Proposals

Train the Trainer

Create New Collaborations

Goal #1

Train New Investigators

Number of TIDIRH Trainees by Year

Year	Application Received	Accepted
2011	239	34
2012	204	35
2013	166	45
2014	289	41
2015	181	41
2016	242	50
2017	216	51
2018	204	53

2018 Cohort

- 77% Junior Investigators
- 15% Mid-level Investigators
- 8% Senior Investigators

What Does the Course Look Like?

Presentations

Homework

Small Groups

Facilitated Q&A

Time to Network

Goal #2

Train New Investigators

Develop D&I
Research Proposals

Key Questions In Developing a Study

- What is my primary question?
- What model/framework applies to my question?
- What measures do I need to answer the question?
- Where setting and population am I looking to focus on?
- How can the question BEST be answered?
- How can the question FEASIBLY be answered?
- What data are currently available?
- What data do I need to gather?

Goal #3

Train New Investigators

Develop D&I
Research
Proposals

Train the Trainer

Building D&I Capacity: Interactions with Colleagues

Goals #4

Train New Investigators

Develop D&I
Research
Proposals

Train the Trainer

Create New Collaborations

Beyond Grant Application, TIDIRH Trainees are...

Presenting, Teaching, & Mentoring

- “Formally mentoring clinical scholars (rising physician scientists)”
- “Teaching and advising graduate students in Interdisciplinary Health Communication Program”

Integrating D&I

- “Used TIDIRH knowledge to petition [my] department for a D&I Center for Research, which was granted and I am currently the director”

Publishing

- Wrote a book chapter on D&I for a Health Services Research book for academic surgeons”

Looking Forward to a Great Course!